f: (585) 325-3285

Brian's personal injury practice spans over 30 years. He focuses on serious injuries from medical malpractice, auto, motorcycle and truck accidents, and defective products. Brian's numerous substantial personal injury recoveries have helped seriously injured individuals and their families cope with the often devastating impacts of those injuries and move forward with their lives.

He has achieved The Best Lawyers in America status for medical malpractice, personal injury and product liability law. The Best Lawyers in America has twice chosen Brian as the Medical Malpractice Lawyer of the Year in Rochester, N.Y. and twice as the Product Liability Litigation Lawyer of the Year in Rochester, N.Y. Martindale-Hubbell has awarded Brian its highest rating, and he has been selected as an Upstate New York Super Lawyer every year since 2007.

To enhance his understanding of personal injuries, anatomy and medical records, Brian has attended autopsies, surgeries and anatomy courses, including complete dissection of a human cadaver, under the auspices of medical school faculty.

Brian is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers serving on its New York-Upstate State Committee, as well as chair of the Volunteer Legal Services Project's Nominations Committee. The Federal District Court of the Western District of New York certified Brian as a Mediator in 2012 and he has successfully mediated several Federal Court cases since then.

Brian is regularly invited to present at legal education programs for other attorneys, and has presented at numerous such programs on medical malpractice, defective products and various other personal injury law topics.
